Announcing our June appreciation program in celebration of the SORANO HOTEL's first anniversary

The SORANO HOTEL [Tachikawa, Tokyo; Tachihi Hospitality Management Co., Ltd.; Hiroyuki Sakamoto, Director & COO] celebrates its first anniversary this June. The hotel opened in the midst of the COVID-19 pandemic and marks this anniversary in bleak circumstances as Japan upholds its state of emergency; however, as the first anniversary is an important milestone for new hotels like us, we offer the following June program to humbly show our appreciation. While taking appropriate measures against infection, we hope to give our guests an opportunity to relax even in these times calling for control and restraint.

【Hydrangea in Full Bloom Lobby Flowers】 6/3 (Thursday) to 13 (Sunday)

In June, the contrast is stunning with the green of early summer and blue of hydrangeas. The scenery is reflected in our lobby lavishly adorned with hydrangeas, which together with the green of Japanese enkianthus, create a cool, refreshing ambiance. Colorful umbrellas hanging from the louvers near the entrance add a playful touch, so forget the gloom of the rainy season as you unwind in our lobby.

From June 8 (Tuesday), our hotel's opening date, the first 150 parties (staying and restaurant guests only) will receive loss flowers*. (*Loss flowers are flowers that will be destroyed instead of used despite being grown with care by the producers as a result of the pandemic. We are planning to purchase these flowers to give away to our guests.)

【First Anniversary Appreciation Package】 6/1 (Tuesday) to 7/16 (Friday) *Blackout on Saturdays In-room dining and a gift of sparkling wine or tea

On top of special rates, our package includes dinner in your room to offer peace of mind during your stay, as well as one bottle of sparkling wine or tea for your enjoyment. We also give away our colorful hotel logo cap. Available from 14,740 yen (tax inclusive) per guest per night with two meals included.
